

Supplemental Reading Requirement

In an effort to increase reading skills and allow students to focus on one specific component in social science, each student will be assigned other readings besides the textbook. These supplemental readings consist of:

FALL SEMESTER: Student Choice of Reading. Choice one option below:

Length requirement	Book 100 pages	Published articles 5 articles, each at least 2 pages in length
Eligible reading materials	Non-fiction or historical fiction (a novel that is based on some historic basis)	MAGAZINES <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • TIME Magazine • National Geographic • Christian Science Monitor • Foreign Affairs Magazine • Atlantic Monthly • The Weekly Standard • The Economist • Smithsonian • US News and World Report NEWSPAPERS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Washington Post • New York Times • Wall Street Journal • Financial Times of London • Star Tribune • Pioneer Press

If you see an article of interest pertaining to social issues in another magazine or newspaper, please talk with Mr. Moddes for approval.*

ASSIGNMENT

CHOOSE FROM:

- a. Typed book review (4 pages minimum)
- b. Study guide
- c. 5-10 minute presentation to the class

One typed page summary for EACH article = 5 pages total. (please attach hardcopy of article with each summary)

DUE DATES

December 1st

December 1st

SPRING SEMESTER: Required Non-fiction book: A Mighty Long Way. Assignment will be provided at a later date.